Dear Ben,

Thank you for your latest letter. We are clearly not going to agree. I suggest, in line with Alastair's last letter to me, that we now wait for the report of the Foreign Affairs Select Committee.

We appreciate the level of anger in Government about our report. I hope you appreciate the deep sense of injustice in the BBC that a disagreement about one report was used to traduce the whole organisation.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

(Richard Sambrook)
