Dear Ben

Thank you for your letters.

As you know we have said we are not going to make any further comment relating to our source so I am not going to provide the clarification you seek.

You are of course welcome to instigate an official complaint about John Humphrys on the Today programme on June 28th.

The BBC's Programme Complaints Unit, which as you know operates independently of production divisions, can be contacted at:-

Broadcasting House
Portland Place

Yours sincerely
