hello,

I just wanted to send a little email to say that I hope you manage to keep energy for your important work, undoubtedly recent events must have been straining.. seems to be an occupational hazard associated with UNSCOM work..?

In [REDACTED] things are fine I am getting close to a draft, if you have email access (I will check first) I will send you the draft, alternatively I will send you a later version when you do have email access. (I think it should have some value but undoubtedly it will benefit from critical reading in case I have misunderstood or misinterpreted)

Best wishes,
[REDACTED]
