I telephoned you mid-day Sunday and encountered your problematic phone – I now see your message. Anyway, I only called to let you know that Blix was due on the Radio 4 programme world this weekend. In the end I was on the phone and heard only the last sentence or two. No new information. Good luck with the marathon training. Did they end up starting later on the Monday and then keep you over to the Tuesday?
Best,

Olivia,

Training now occupies Monday and Tuesday! My [REDACTED] number is problematic so call on [REDACTED] if necessary. Mobile always on!

Enjoy the weekend

David
