Many thanks for your thoughts and prayers. It has been a remarkably tough time. Should all blow over by early next week then I will travel to Baghdad a week Friday.

I have had to keep a low profile which meant leaving home for a week! Back now.

With best wishes and thanks for your support

David

Dear David,

[REDACTED] and I saw with concern newspaper reports of your being the BBC informant. Whatever comes of it in the end, we hope the tussle between the BBC and the govt will not tarnish your impeccable reputation for integrity. We thought it must have been quite a difficult for you in the past few weeks and you were very much in our minds and prayers.

With best wishes to Jan and you,

[REDACTED]
