Hi David,

thanks for your message I am hesitating to phone your cell phone from my office phone. I do not know, if there are higher charges involved. I have to sign for the calls every month

I go out with [REDACTED] tonight. There will be many more farewell parties. One yesterday for [REDACTED] one tomorrow for [REDACTED] etc. I am looking forward to mine.

Yesterday, I went to the 30th floor and saw [REDACTED] working on the re-classification of sites I thought they had long be finished, but it seems to be ongoing. He proudly showed me what he did. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Anyhow, I am happy to leave
[REDACTED] on.

All the very best, [REDACTED]
