Dear [REDACTED]

Currently with the Iraq crisis ongoing I am not able to give interviews. Of course on the day I will be free to interact but in the interim I would prefer that my details are not provided.

Sincerely,

Dear participants,

RE The Centre for the Study of Human Rights Presents a Public Debate - Coping with the Weapons of Tomorrow: Ethics and Rules
LSE, Thursday 8 May, 2 30-5pm

Your details have been passed to me from Joy Whyte at the Centre for the Study of Human Rights at the LSE.

We have received press calls from journalists who would like to interview you and those others taking part in the debate scheduled on the 8 May on 'Coping with the Weapons of Tomorrow: Ethics and Rules'. Would it be okay for me to pass on your details to these third parties?

Please let me know as soon as possible. Many thanks and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards

Dear [REDACTED]

Many thanks for this. The participants' email addresses are as follows:

- * Dr John B. Alexander [REDACTED]
- * Prof Malcom Dando [REDACTED]
- * Dr David Kelly: [REDACTED]
- * Dr Jozef Goldblat [REDACTED]
- * Peter Herby. [REDACTED]
- * Dr Robin Coupland: [REDACTED]

I think it might be best to check with the participants that they are happy to have their contact details passed on to third parties. Any press/other media who are interested should also be aware that the BBC will be recording the whole event, for broadcast on the BBC World Service Agenda programme. As such, there cannot be any other recording during the event, although we are - of course - delighted for the participants to give interviews either before or after the event, if they are happy to do so.

Please let me know if you require any further information.

Best wishes

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]

Christina Pfersdorf from ZDF German TV (Tel [REDACTED]) is interested in getting in touch with the panellist who will be having a debate on 8 May. The Centre for the Study of Human Rights Presents a Public Debate - Coping with the Weapons of Tomorrow: Ethics and Rules

Do you have any contact details I can forward to her? Also do you know if any of them mind being broadcasted, or available for interviews?

Kind regards
