Julian Miller rang me and said that he would like to come and show someone the latest thinking on the dossier tomorrow without getting into circulating copies just so as they are on the right track. ~~Clearly, the dossier is not yet ready for circulation.~~
I said I thought it was best in the circles if he spoke to you if you were around tomorrow and were up for it. It is more presentational than content driven. Can Alison let him know if you are on for that or if not probably best if he sees Tom. I am not in.
