

MOST OF THESE WILL NEED TO BE ANSWERED BY MOD

When was the PM made aware that the individual had come forward? And by who? I think David Omand came to see David Manning on Friday, although the official had approached the MOD on Monday. I told PM.

When was AC made aware? Saturday, I think, by GH.

What were the procedures that were followed? MOD

Surely it is unprecedented for a department to make a statement in this way? This is a fairly unprecedented situation, where the BBC are not prepared to admit the story untrue although everyone involved in it has publicly said it was wrong.

Who wrote the statement? MOD. No 10 and Departments commented on it as you would expect.

The statement was issued by the MOD from the Permanent Secretary. No. MOD.

What disciplinary procedures will follow? Matter for MOD.

Has the OSA been breached? Matter for MOD

No – as the individual did not have access to the JIC assessments.

Was the individual allowed to talk to the media? MOD – it was his job

Are you still calling for the BBC to apologise? We are asking the BBC to accept that its story was untrue.

The Government (who?) has written to the BBC drawing this information to their attention. Geoff Hoon

Have you investigated the other three sources referred to by the BBC correspondent? Don't know

The FAC made a detailed recommendation on this and we are looking into it. Proper procedures are of course being followed.

Is there a formal leak inquiry? Ask Cabinet Office
