Dr Kelly's contacts with Andrew Gilligan

Gilligan described Dr Kelly as a "longstanding" contact. In his 1st June article in the Mail on Sunday, he wrote that "We'd both been too busy to meet for nearly a year" when the 22nd May meeting took place.

The MoD statement states that Kelly had known Gilligan "for some months" The BBC's statement states that "Mr Gilligan's source does not work in the Ministry of Defence and he has known the source for a number of years not months "

8. How long have you known Andrew Gilligan?
9. How many times have you met him? Were any of your contacts with him authorised?
10. How frequently did you speak to him on the telephone, or exchange e-mails or correspondence?

The BBC statement states that "Mr Gilligan's notes and account of what he was told are very similar to the notes of a conversation Susan Watts, Science Editor of Newsnight, had with her source which led to the Newsnight reports of June 2 and 4. These reports contained allegations consistent with the Gilligan report and she described her source as 'a senior official intimately involved with process of pulling together the September dossier'."

11. Have you also met Susan Watts of the BBC Newsnight programme? If so, when?
12. Did you ensure that Mr Gilligan was fully aware of your position in MoD and of the extent of your access (or lack of access) to intelligence?
