Track Record and Deployability

Record any comments you wish your manager to consider when assessing your track record and deployability

My current deployment is rewarding and challenging and I wish to remain associated with the activity.

Development

Record the most significant development activity undertaken. Include development opportunities you have taken which would not otherwise be formally noted, e.g. reading appropriate articles, flexible learning, attending meetings of professional body, project-based training. State how you have put your learning into practice

Future career aspirations

Use this box to record your career aspirations or any career path you may wish to pursue and, where appropriate, when you hope to achieve these goals. If you have had a career review with your BGM/RM in the past record any relevant outcomes

Recently FCO have agreed to continue my secondment to PACS to support UK policy making with regard to Iraq until my retirement in May 2004. I am content with this arrangement.
